

SWEDISH CONFERENCE IN ECONOMICS

Department of Economics, Lund University

15 -16 November, 2024

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Deadline 20 June, 2024

Welcome to the eighth Swedish conference in economics!

The Swedish conference in economics 2024 is arranged by the Swedish Economic Association together with the Department of Economics at Lund University.

The program will contain a mix of shorter and longer presentations and is open both to graduate students and senior researchers.

The conference language is English.

There is no conference fee. Partial funding is available for hotel and travel expenses. Priority for reimbursement will be given PhD students and postdocs if needed.

All participants are welcome to a conference dinner on November 15th at the Museum of Artistic Processes and Public Art.

Non-presenting participants are also welcome to attend the conference.

For submissions and more information, see:
